

The Jamaica Deanery of the Diocese of Long Island

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ in the Jamaica Deanery and beyond:

The last few weeks have been very tumultuous, scary and fearful to say the least. In one way or another, the human family has and continues to be impacted by COVID-19. If we were to ponder our common humanity, not one sector or segment of life has not undergone an adjustment or a shift. All religious institutions and denominations, people of goodwill, have sought to find ways to maintain connections and worship services while adhering to our “new normal” of social distancing. Yes, it could be challenging, but it is life-giving as we protect not only ourselves but each other.

Like many of you, prior to March 14th, I was wrapping my mind around the penitential season of Lent and its austerity. Unfortunately, we all had to change plans and make quick decisions. Many churches who were utilizing technology may have had an edge. However, it challenged others to take a deep dive into the world of Zoom, Skype, and teleconference calls. I am quite certain we are all delighted to see or hear each other. And time marches on!!!

The Fifth Week of Lenten observance is over, and we are preparing to enter the most holy and sublime week – Holy Week. The Jamaica Deanery would have gathered on each Wednesday in Lent to worship, pray, share fellowship and bid each other goodbye until next year – the normal. The last two weeks have brought us a connection which sought to continue the normal experience. Unfortunately, returning ‘home’ to participate in Holy Week and or the Tridium liturgies will not occur in the usual manner. The clergy of the Jamaica deanery felt it was prudent to offer these liturgies (even if it meant adapting) so we could still fully embrace the Holy Mysteries and walk with Christ. With this in mind, we are making available the following Virtual Church times and links, so we can join across the deanery to pray and worship.

I pray you will find this helpful and that the liturgies (by parish) will nourish you spiritually, as we stay safe and stay healthy. A Blessed Holy Week to you and your family.

Yours in Christ,

The Very Rev. Steve Foster
Dean of the Jamaica Deanery
